

Unpacking Disability Law Programme 2019 – North Shore

This community-based programme is focused on disability and your legal rights. Unpacking Disability Law is free and designed for disabled people and supporters.

The Sessions:

12 March 2019

This Thing Called the Law: Introduction to the Law in Aotearoa New Zealand

Stand Up For Your Rights: Human Rights and Discrimination

Register by 26 February 2019

26 March 2019

Employment Essentials: Pre-employment and Employment Rights

Register by 11 March 2019

9 April 2019

Tools to Keep Safe: Personal Safety Rights and Protections around Domestic Violence, Trespass, Harassment and Cyber Bullying

Register by 25 March 2019

30 April 2019

Law and Order: Criminal Law

Rights and Advice: Dealing with the Police and Going to Court

Register by 16 April 2019

Know your Rights

14 May 2019

Navigating your Health Rights: Health and Disability Code of Rights and Complaint Processes

Know Your Rights: Mental Health Rights

Register by 29 April 2019

28 May 2019

Who's got the Power 1: Wills and Enduring Powers of Attorney

Who's got the Power 2: Guardianships, Property Managers and Supported Decision Making

Register by 13 May 2019

The Details:

All sessions are 10am to 1pm, with a break (light refreshments).

The venue is Mission Hall, Glenfield Community Centre, 411 Glenfield Rd, Glenfield (entry off Bentley Ave).

Registration:

Please email us at info@adl.org.nz, or text 027 457 5140, or ring 09 257 5140. Give us your name, email address, contact phone number, and the date(s) and session(s) name you want to attend.

Please tell us if you have any access needs or if you need an NZSL interpreter two weeks before the session you will attend.

Let us know if you need onsite, accessible parking. There is additional free parking available nearby.

Please tell us if you are bringing a guide dog or assistance animal.

Please Note:

People can attend the entire programme or go to selected sessions. The sessions are free.

